HAL & HARRIET MAYFIELD

STORY OF HAL & HARRIETT MAYFIELD

Hal & Harriet Mayfield were born as slaves in 1856 and 1861 respectively. They were freed as a result of the passage of the 13th Amendment to the U. S. Constitution in 1865.

The Mayfield family has been traced back to Mobile, Alabama where they were auctioned off as slaves by a white slave buyer by the name of Mayfield. Hal secretly took Harriet and her sister, Sally Clark, off the plantation. He and Harriett Kirby were married in 1877.

After several years in Mississippi, Hal, who was a pure blooded African, and Harriette moved to Greenville, South Sarolina to join the Marcus Garvey movement. Marcus Mosiah Garvey Jr. (17 August 1887 – 10 June 1940)¹ was a proponent of Black nationalism in the United States and most importantly Jamaica. He was the founder and President of a mass movement called the Universal Negro Improvement Association and African Communities League. He also founded the Black Star Line, a shipping and passenger line which promoted the return of the Africans to their ancestral lands. Although most American Black leaders condemned his methods and his support for racial segregation, Garvey attracted a large following. The Black Star Line went bankrupt due to sabotage from the Bureau of Investigation, which is now known as the Federal Bureau of investigation and Garvey was imprisoned for mail fraud in the selling of its stock. His movement then rapidly collapsed.

After the failure of the Back to Africa Movement and several years in South Carolina where Lee and Lewis Mayfield were born, the Mayfield family moved back to Mississippi. In spite of the fact that Hal Mayfield had only one arm and did not know how to read and write, he became a very successful farmer and horse trader. He bought land in Pontotoc, Chickasaw and Lee Counties. He organized a school in the Union Baptist Community which was later called the Mayfield School.

Hal Mayfield became a successful farmer and horse trader who left a sizable inheritance of land, property and cash at his death in 1927. He owned several hundred acres of land in Chickasaw and Pontotoc Counties. Before and after his death, several of the Mayfield children farmed about a hundred acres of land located in what was referred to as the Mayfield Bottom. This was rich farm land on which cotton, corn, soybeans, etc. were farmed annually.

Several years after his death, Henry Mayfield (7th child) & his wife, Ella, moved from Byhalia, Mississippi where they had lived by several years to the home on Hwy 41 west of Okolona with Harriett. Harriett passed in 1946. About 10 years after her death, Henry & Ella built a new home on the site and lived their until the death. The house is presently owned and occupied by their descendants of Henry & Ella Mayfield.

Lewis Mayfield (3rd child) resided on 10 acres directly across Hwy 41 from the home site. He lived their until his death in 1965. Although no one lives on that property at the present time, the land is still owned by descendants of Lewis Mayfield

Daisy Mayfield Heard made her home on several acres of land located on Hwy 41 several miles west of the home site in Pontotoc County. Several descendants still live on that property.

Charlie Mayfield made his home on four (4) acres of land located on Hwy 41 right across the Chickasaw county line in Pontotoc county. Like Lewis, Daisy & Henry, he farmed on family land in the Mayfield bottom.

HAL MAYFIELD, JR.

HAL MAYFIELD, JR. (oldest child of Hal & Harriett Mayfield)

BORN: Dec. 12, 1875 DIED: Unknown

 0 descendants of Hal Mayfield, Jr.

Hal Mayfield, Jr. was born December 12, 1875 in Lee County, Mississippi. He died at a young age without any children. The only evidence that we have on Hal Mayfield, Jr. is the preceding page from the Bible that is believed to be in the handwriting of Harriet Mayfield who wrote the names of all her children. This is amazing because slaves was not taught to read and write. Although Hal Mayfield, Sr. was a very successful entrepreneur, he never learned to write his name. His signature was an "X".

Because his name was listed in the family bible after Henry Mayfield, even though he was the first born, it is believed that Hal, Jr. was born before Hal & Harriet were married. As a matter of fact, most of the family did not know of Hal Jr. until his name was discovered in the family bible. Sadly, we don't know if he died as a baby, a young child or older.

Hal, Jr. was officially recognized and remembered when the Mayfield family installed a memorial at the entrance to the Mt. Zion Cemetery on August 31, 2014. The land to this cemetery was donated by John Henry Mayfield (son of John Mayfield & grandson of Hal & Harriet Mayfield). More descendants of the Mayfield family are buried in this cemetery than any other cemetery. Herbert Hoover Mayfield was the first person to be buried in January 1961 after he died in an automobile accident at the age of 31.

BLACK HISTORY FACTS

Dr. James E. West
Electret Microphone Inventor

Ninety percent of microphones used today are based on the ingenuity of James Edward West, an African-American inventor born in 1931 in Prince Edwards County, VA. If you've ever talked on the telephone, you've probably used his invention.

Dr. James E. West and a colleague, Gerhard Sessler, developed the mic (officially known as the Electroacoustic Transducer Electret Microphone) while with Bell Laboratories, and they received a patent for it in 1962. The acoustical technologies employed became widely used for many reasons including high performance, acoustical accuracy and reliability. It is also small, lightweight and cost effective.

West started at Bell labs as an intern and joined them full-time in 1957 after graduating from Temple University. As the inventor of the microphone, James West has received numerous awards and honors including a Fellow of IEEE, Industrial Research Institute's 1998 Achievement Award, 1995 Inventor of the Year from the State of New Jersey and induction in the Inventors Hall of Fame in 1999. James E. West holds 47 US patents and more than 200 foreign patents from his 40-year career with Bell Laboratories.

During his career, West also involved himself with programs designed to encourage minorities to take more of a role in the sciences. In the 1970's, he was a member of the Association of Black Laboratories Employees (ABLE) at Bell Labs that influenced management to fund the Summer Research Program (SRP) and Cooperate Research Fellowship Program (CRFP) – programs that helped more than 500 non-white students graduate with degrees in science, engineering and mathematics.

James Edward West now works with Johns Hopkins University as a research professor.

ABOUT "DADDY HENRY" MAYFIELD

By Kenneth Mayfield

Henry Mayfield (Daddy Henry) was a quiet and easy going man who stood over 6' tall. Some say he had to be quiet to live with my grandmother, Ella Mayfield (Mama Tim) who was quite the opposite. Some say she would even boldly speak her mind to white people, and that was not generally permitted in those Jim Crow days.

Both Daddy Henry and Mama Tim had a reputation of being very hard workers. Daddy Henry moved his family and lived in Byhalia, Mississippi from the 1920s to the 1930's when he moved back home several years after the death of Grandpa Hal Mayfield. He moved into the family home of Hal and Harriet and took over the farming operation in Chickasaw County that was started by Hal Mayfield.
